Celebrate Summer's Bounty

August 2009

Dear Friends,

August is a bittersweet time for me. The school year inches closer, sunsets arrive a few minutes earlier, and schedules fill up again. On the other hand, my garden is exploding with delicious, organically grown vegetables, fruits from the farmers' markets delight my taste buds, and everyone is sun-kissed and filled with summer memories to share.

I've spent this summer celebrating the little things in life--sharing a bottle of wine with friends, tackling small projects on the house, and waking with the sun to hit the gym. So what are you celebrating now? What are the changes you've made lately, and what are you contemplating next? This summer has taught me to be open to change, and now I'm reaping the bounty. Before autumn arrives, I hope you and your family can taste this sweetness too.

Yours,
Maria Onesto Moran

With all the cute, practical products available, now there's no excuse for not sending your kids to school with reusable lunch supplies. We're fully stocked with Snack Taxi and Wrap-N-Mat sandwich wraps, Laptop Lunches, recycled cotton lunch bags, bamboo utensils, stainless steel water bottles, and even kid-sized cloth napkins!

We're Listening

Our customers are our eyes and ears. Is there a new product you'd like us to carry? A workshop you'd like us to host? Local events we should sponsor? Please send us any and all ideas, suggestions, and recommendations that come to mind. We'd love to hear from you!

And don't forget that we offer plenty of green school supplies too! Bring in that supply list, and you'll leave with all the eco-friendly goodies needed to get through the school year. Aside from everything for your child, we also offer wipes, tissues, paper towels, and paper products for the classroom.

Get it To-Go!

A Better Doggy Bag

Stainless, stylish & stackable! This 2-Tier Stainless Steel Tiffin Set is reusable, lightweight, and has a lid that doubles as a plate. It's easy to carry and clean, but hard to live without. Great for both cold or hot food, and the planet, too.

Perfect for work, school, picnics, or a night out (makes for a stylish doggy bag). There's nowhere it won't go...except to a landfill. $18.50

Are You Flushing Money Down the Drain?

Can you believe that most of the toilets in our homes use as much as 9 gallons of water per flush (gpf)? These outdated fixtures uselessly waste thousands of gallons a year of one of our most precious resources--water. And it's not just the water that we're wasting, it's also the energy required to treat that water before it enters our home.

If you're getting ready to replace a toilet in your home or office, consider the Toto Aquia Dual Flush. It gives you the option of using either .9 gpf or 1.6 gpf. GHE customers who have bought this toilet from us rave that it's effective, efficient and easy to clean, and everyone loves lowering their water bills!

While you're thinking about ways to save water at home, consider the AQUUS™ Greywater System, an innovative conservation device which recycles greywater for reuse in toilet flushing. The AQUUS™ System saves water and utilities costs by reducing water usage up to 5,000 gallons a year in an average household. The commercial and residential water savings can help save significant quantities of water in areas where this resource is in danger due to current extreme drought conditions.
