More About Us

Dear Friends,

It's happened again! Fall has arrived in all its splendor. The rich colors of the trees, the scent of this crisp air, and the early sunrises are all symbols of this beautiful season. They're also a reminder of what we're working to preserve--our planet. Every decision we make impacts the environment. We vote with our dollars, and each time we make the "green" decision, we are voting for the environment.

I look forward to sharing this holiday season with you and helping you live a greener life. During this season of thanksgiving, as a token of our gratitude for our customers, we have a wide variety of clearance items to make the holidays more affordable during this difficult economic time. I hope when you're considering your holiday purchases, you'll vote green.

Yours truly,

Maria Onesto Moran
President

Give the Gift of Green!

We can't wait to showcase all of these amazing holiday gifts! A huge inventory of seasonal items arrived at the store just this morning. With gifts starting at $5, we have something for every budget.

A few things that came in today: Burt's Bees gift sets, soy aromatherapy candles, eco-themed books for children and adults, Wrap-N-Mats, Caldrea lotion & soap sets, Mrs. Meyer's Peppermint gift sets, Compost Caddies, and 100% recycled gift bags and tissue paper. And don't forget the trusty gift certificate!

Now through Christmas, we're offering either free gift wrapping (100% recycled) or a discounted reusable bag with each purchase. To make shopping easy, we've created a variety of gift packages to ensure there's something for everyone on your list.

Clearance Items--Get Them While They Last

To make room for all of our new inventory, we have cleared our High Desert Naturals adult bedding and quilts, Cotton Monkey crib bedding, and organic pet beds. Once they're gone, they're not coming back so get them while they last!
